Global Pathway Programme

Study a master's programme in Trinity, Ireland's leading University. As part of the Global Pathway Programme, following completion of your undergraduate degree at Beijing University of Technology, you can transfer to Trinity to enter one of the MSc in Engineering programmes.

Why Study Engineering at Trinity?

Trinity is Ireland's leading university, steeped in history with a reputation for excellence in education and research. While our campus dates back over four hundred years, our research facilities and institutes sit right in the twenty first century.

The MSc in Engineering is designed to equip students with the theoretical knowledge and the practical skills to develop careers in the global energy sector.

International Dimension

Trinity attracts a global community of academics dedicated to addressing challenges of vital importance to the world around us and has a diverse student body with students from 119 different countries. As Ireland's oldest and highest-ranking university, Trinity strives to educate global citizens who will shape the world's future. Chinese students are the third largest cohort of international students at Trinity from outside the EU.

English Language Support

All modules on this programme are taught in English but students can avail of Trinity's extensive language-learning facilities. The Centre for English Language Learning and Teaching focuses specifically on the development of student's academic English skills to support their current and future university studies.

All students can enrol on the "English for Academic Purposes" course. www.tcd.ie/slscs/english/trinity_in-sessional_programme/index.php

4 Years at Beijing University of Technology + 1 Year at Trinity

- As part of the selection process, you will be asked to take an on-line programming test (in C, C++ or Java).

MSc in Engineering

Why Trinity for Engineering?

Our MSc courses attract graduate students from areas beyond engineering, including environmental sciences, geography and architecture. We receive applications from students throughout the world and our classes are typically a diverse mix of Irish and international students.

Trinity College is one of the oldest and best-known universities in Europe. As the oldest university in Ireland, dating from 1592, Trinity has upheld a reputation of tradition and quality in education. The School of Engineering is one of the oldest engineering schools in the English-speaking world, established in 1841. Our MSc courses have received nominations for Postgrad Ireland Best New Course in 2013, Postgrad Ireland Best Engineering Course in 2015 and Education Award at Irish Logistics and Transport Awards in 2017.

Our comprehensive modules offer you a broad selection of specialist modules that allows you to focus on one of ten distinctive streams, while also offering you the opportunity to take a limited number of modules from other specialist courses. Teaching methods include formal lectures, seminars, group design projects and site visits. A major dissertation in the final stage of your MSc will require you to undertake Research in your specialist theme and this will help you develop your skills in reviewing literature and develop a project from concept to delivery.

Students coming to Trinity under this partnership, can choose one of the following MSc in Engineering programmes:

- MSc in Structural & Geotechnical Engineering
- MSc in Transport Engineering, Policy & Planning.
- MSc in Sustainable Energy Engineering
- MSc in Environmental Engineering
- MSc in Mechanical Engineering
- MSc in Biomedical Engineering
- MSc in Electronic Information Engineering
- MPhil in Music & Media Technologies
- MSc in Computational Engineering
- MSc in Zero Carbon Technology

Application Deadline

Please check individual programmes for application deadlines. Generally, students must submit their application to Trinity by 30 June at the latest but early application is strongly advised.

Fees

The fees for the current academic year are available here. Students on this programme may be eligible for a scholarship.

Accommodation

Trinity is committed to ensuring that all international students have a positive experience while preparing to make the move to Dublin.

Partnerships students will be prioritised for Trinity approved accommodation provided they apply by May 1st. More information on accommodation options while at Trinity can be found here: www.tcd.ie/accommodation

Student Life at Trinity

Immerse yourself in a broad range of sports clubs and student societies and get a real sense of the 'Trinity Experience'.

Your first days at Trinity

Freshers' Week

Trinity offers orientation to all new postgraduate and undergraduate students prior to the start of the academic year during a week known as Freshers' Week. It is a chance for you to meet your classmates, attend information sessions and sign up to one of many clubs and societies at Trinity. Find out more at: www.tcd.ie/students/orientation

A specific International Postgraduate Student Orientation takes place before teaching commences. Details are available at: www.tcd.ie/students/orientation/postgraduates

Trinity Education

After the excitement of Freshers' Week, teaching term starts, and you will be settling into your course. Most of your classes at Trinity will be a mixture of lecturers, tutorials and some practicals. Tutorials are less formal and usually take place in smaller groups, giving you a chance to delve deeper into the studied topics with your classmates and teaching assistants.

Trinity in Twelve Weeks

The "Trinity in Twelve Weeks" virtual programme aims to continue your orientation during your first semester and help your transition to university life. The programme has a new theme every week, from study and exam skills to how to look after yourself while at university. Your mentors will be in touch with you every week to let you know what the week's theme is and to arrange events and activities. Find out more at: www.tcd.ie/students/orientation/twelve-weeks

Pathway to Belonging

"Pathway to Belonging" is an 8-week pre-departure orientation programme for international students. This webinar series is an invaluable resource that will provide insider tips, important information and a sneak peek into campus life.

Trinity Clubs & Societies

As a student at Trinity, you will be able to choose from over 49 sports clubs including aikido, basketball, Gaelic football, surfing, hockey, rugby, soccer, table tennis, badminton and many more. You will also automatically be a member of our Sports Centre. The Sports Centre is where the majority of our fitness classes and programmes take place, 7 days a week. Facilities include a 25-metre swimming pool, climbing wall and a fully equipped gym. www.tcd.ie/sport

At Trinity, we have over 120 student societies which constitute some of the most dynamic and active university student societies in Ireland, allowing you to develop new skills or put your existing ones into action with everything from the International Student Society to the Zoological Society. Find out more at: www.trinitysocieties.ie
